RUDOLPH NIMS RESIDENCE
208 West Noble Street
Monroe, Monroe County, Michigan.

Owner	Miss Katherine N. Nims
Date of Erection	1846
Architect	Unknown
Builder	Jacques Godfroy
Present Condition	Good
Number of Stories	Two
Materials of Construction:	Hewn oak frame on field stone foundation. White wood clapboards and cornice. Interior white wood trim.
Other Existing Records:	County Court House, Monroe, Michigan.
Additional Data:	The property on which this house was built was the LaSalle Farm from a Government Grant. It was originally owned by Jacques Godfroy who purchased it sometime between 1810-1830 and subsequently built the house in 1846-47, which he sold to his partner in a land company, Rudolph Nims, in 1848. Miss Nims, present owner and occupant, states that Mr. Godfroy never occupied the house and that it has belonged to the Nims family since 1848. The first addition which was the Dining Room was built in 1850.

The second addition, a small room off the Dining Room, was built in 1863.

The third addition, a summer kitchen in 1911.

The fourth addition, a small porch in 1914.

In 1890 Mr. F. A. Nims is said to have built the East porch; this was however, an enlargement in all probability, of an early two-columnar porch, into the present semi-octangular one, which has two kinds of Doric columns.

While exact dates are not available, it is probable that the rear portion whose first and second floors are at a lower level, and being more modest in character, was erected a little earlier than the main more monumental portion of the house with its four-columnar two-story Doric portico.
